Create Your Killer Mindset

ABOUT

Wherever you are based in the world, Netwomen is here for you to grow and develop in a diverse and inspiring online community. We have a range of events and memberships tailored to suit everyone.

We are a global online platform for career women who feel alone and under recognised. We help you promote yourself, increase your visibility and generate leads and opportunities through videos, interviews, networking, workshops, learning platforms and mastermind groups. Our weekly online meet-ups are very popular and attract women from all over the world.

EVENTS PER MONTH

*Growth includes members who have signed up to our social media groups, Netwomen.co and our online networking events. All events have moved online due to coronavirus. We have also increased from 2 events per month to up to 6, due to demand.

We are passionate about creating an environment that empowers and supports ambitious, like-minded women, who encourage collaboration and knowledge sharing. We are a global community of more than 3000 inspiring ladies consisting of the Netwomen.co, LinkedIn, Facebook, meet-up groups and we are growing fast! No matter what level you are at, there is always another challenge to conquer or a goal to reach.

To raise the bar, you need to stay laser-focused on your objectives. Netwomen.co events offer a space to share these goals. It doesn't matter if they are career, business or personal, there is always something more to learn. That is why we offer mastermind groups, personal development workshops and training with leading experts as part of your membership.

Testimonials:

'I am a big believer in women supporting other women. I recently joined netwomen.co and I have found it to be the most welcoming community for women of all ages, countries and different businesses. I particularly enjoy the evening socials where we hear from other business women and get the opportunity to network virtually.' - Ekua Cant, London

'I love that I have met some brilliant connections. It's not just about dropping in and leaving. There is trust built and as a result I have had sales because people buy from people. Not to mention the great events full of super advice, support and tips.' Amanda Thomson, West Lothian
